

MGF 007-85

7 July 1985

MEMORANDUM FOR : Director, FBIS

THROUGH : Chief, Operations Group

SUBJECT : Monthly Report--Gulf Bureau--June 1985

I. GENERAL:

Bureau employees continued their security drills during the month, this time receiving training and practice on the Rescumatics, the emergency escape devices for repelling from the office's sixth floor location. With the cooperation of the U.S. Navy, employees practiced descending two stories inside a large storage warehouse. The practice has increased employees' confidence in their ability to leave the office if normal exits were blocked. (rappelling)

II. OPERATIONS

A. Editorial/Monitorial

1. While coverage of the TWA hijacking did not have a major impact on normal bureau operations, operating hours were extended on several occasions during the crisis to cover Manama WAKH in Arabic for unique reportage on the situation. Numerous comments from Gulf media and Iranian reportage on the incident were processed.

2. At the request of Tel Aviv Bureau, Gulf assumed coverage of (Clandestine) National Voice of Iran in Persian on 29 June during their Persian monitor's annual leave. Coverage will continue through 23 July and program summaries wirefiled daily.

3. At the request of BBC, program summaries for Tabriz International Service in Azeri 1800 GMT newscast were prepared and wirefiled to them for three broadcast days (10, 11, and 12 June).

4. With the celebration of Id al-Fitr (marking the end of Ramadan) on 18, 19, or 20 June in the Gulf countries, the YAR and PDRY, and Iran, radio and television stations monitored by Gulf bureau were observed to return to their normal pre-Ramadan scheduled programming.
